GRAPHIC DESIGN

BFA REVIEW

Students desiring acceptance into the Graphic Design BFA emphasis must be accepted into the program by faculty review.

PROCESS

1. FORMS and PORTFOLIO SUBMISSION

- a. Pick up a GD BFA review application from the Art + Design (A+D) Office. Read the form carefully to make sure you qualify (have completed or are enrolled in the necessary classes.)
- b. Print an unofficial copy of your transcripts.
<http://www.usu.edu/registrar/htm/records/transcripts>
- c. Assemble a Portfolio binder (approx. 10 x 11.5 inches) that includes your name on the cover.
Inside include:
 - 1) your completed BFA application (see reverse)
 - 2) current transcripts
 - 3) work examples from all your classes required to apply for the BFA

Note: Print all materials on 8.5 x 11 paper inserted into protective plastic sleeves. You may photograph large works and reduce them to fit the format.

- d. Deliver your completed portfolio with application to FAV 213e between 9:00 A.M. and 9:45 A.M., Friday, December 13. If you can't deliver your portfolio in person, please arrange for a friend to drop it off. Portfolios will be available for retrieval after 3 P.M., Friday, December 13 in the 213 suite of classes common area.

Note: The artwork you submit for review must be your best and must be representative of the classes required to apply for the BFA review. If the work is 3D, please provide a photograph.

Work from Art 2400 Intro to Graphic Design will be given strongest scrutiny.

- e. Deliver a digital PDF of your work examples via USB drive to Tori Moss in the A+D office between 9:00 A.M. and 9:45 A.M., Friday, December 13.

2. NOTIFICATION OF ACCEPTANCE

Candidates will be notified regarding acceptance via email by 3:30 PM Friday, December 13. Please make sure that your email is correct and legible on the application form. If you are not accepted, please see your current graphic design instructor or CCA advisor for guidance.
